Relay For Life Terms & Conditions of Participation

In consideration of my application for entry into Relay For Life being accepted, I accept these terms and conditions of participation in the event. 'Relay For Life' includes not only the Relay For Life event, but all other activities relating to Relay For Life, whether occurring before, during or after the event, and whether organised by Cancer Council or any other person. I acknowledge that if I am under the age of 18, this registration will be considered provisional until the Youth Participant – Parent/Guardian Waiver and Indemnity is received by Cancer Council.

Risk Notice and Voluntary Assumption of Risk

Relay For Life is an event that involves physical exertion and as such has certain inherent risks associated with it. Some of those risks are injury due to slippery or uneven surfaces, obstacles, trip hazards, overcrowding, collision with objects or people and the effects of heat, cold, dehydration and exhaustion. In rainy, windy or other inclement weather conditions, tents, marquees or other structures may collapse or become unsecured from the ground, potentially resulting in injury. Further risks may be associated with parts of Relay For Life that may occur at night.

Injuries may include injuries from falls such as broken bones, sprained muscles, injuries to ligaments, cartilage or other soft tissue, as well as blisters, cuts and abrasions. Injuries may also arise from exertion, including heart attack, fainting and loss of consciousness. I understand that the risks of participation in Relay For Life are increased if I choose to participate in costume, in novelty shoes, using props, or if my walking or running movement is restricted. I accept these increased risks if I choose to participate in Relay For Life in this manner.

I acknowledge that the above is not an exhaustive list of all risks inherent in my participation in Relay For Life. I further acknowledge that there may be risks that are not known or reasonably foreseeable at this time.

I understand that Cancer Council recommends that I consult a doctor before participating in Relay For Life, particularly if I have ever experienced a heart condition, stroke, unexplained chest pains, faintness, dizziness, shortness of breath, severe asthma, diabetes, muscle, joint or bone problems or any other medical conditions that may make it dangerous for me to participate in Relay For Life.

Regardless of whether I have consulted a doctor, I agree that by participating in Relay For Life, I am aware of the risks involved and I voluntarily assume those risks (including any arising from the negligence of Cancer Council).

I warrant that I have no known medical conditions or disabilities that may be incompatible with my safe participation in Relay For Life. I warrant that I am in proper physical and mental condition to participate in Relay For Life.

I understand that Cancer Council has obtained no personal accident insurance or any other insurance covering my participation in Relay For Life and it is my responsibility to obtain any and all insurance which is appropriate for that purpose.

I acknowledge that during Relay For Life both my person and my property shall be at my own risk.

Release and indemnity

I fully and irrevocably exclude and release Cancer Council and all Relay For Life sponsors, as well as their directors, officers, employees, volunteers, agents and representatives, from all liability for any loss, damage, cost or expense (whether in negligence, contract, under statute or otherwise) suffered by me as a consequence of my involvement in Relay For Life, including in relation to death and personal injury.

I further agree that if any claim, including in relation to personal injury, property damage or wrongful death arising from my participation in Relay For Life is commenced, I will indemnify and hold harmless Cancer Council and all Relay For Life sponsors, as well as their directors, officers, employees, volunteers, agents and representatives, from any and all loss, damage, cost or expense in connection with such claim.

Exclusion of Cancer Council's liability

I understand and agree that to the maximum extent permitted by law:

- all conditions, warranties, guarantees, rights, remedies, liabilities or other terms implied or conferred by statute, custom, or the general law that impose any liability or obligation on Cancer Council or Relay For Life sponsors (or their directors, officers, employees, volunteers, agents and representatives) are excluded (including consumer guarantees to the extent such exclusions are permitted under the law);
- neither Cancer Council nor any Relay For Life sponsor (nor any of their directors, officers, employees, volunteers, agents and representatives) will be liable to me or any other person in contract, tort (including negligence) or otherwise for any loss, damage, cost or expense of any kind (including direct, indirect or consequential losses, damages, costs and expenses) suffered or incurred by me or any other person in connection with Relay For Life; and

- in any circumstances where the above exclusions (or any of them) are held by a Court to be ineffective or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, Cancer Council's liability to me and to any other person is limited (at its option) to resupplying, repairing or replacing the service or the payment of the cost of supplying the service to me again.

Public venue and persons giving directions

Relay For Life is a public event held on premises or property made available for community events. As such, the agreement to participate means that I also agree to be bound by the rules and regulations that may apply to the premises or property where the Relay For Life is to be held. I also agree to follow the directions of anyone authorised to give directions whilst I am on the said premises or property.

Behaviour

I agree in participating in Relay For Life that I will show respect for other participants in the event. I agree that my conduct will at all times be considerate of others. I agree to abide by the venue rules concerning activities, coarse language, privacy, and noise. I acknowledge and agree that Relay For Life is a non-smoking event.

I also agree that I will abide by the decision of the local organisers of Relay For Life about whether alcohol is permitted to be consumed at the venue. I also agree that if alcohol is permitted, that I will not cause, permit or allow any such alcohol to be supplied to any minor. I acknowledge that Relay For Life is an animal free event, except for animals that are companions for people with visual impairments.

I acknowledge that Relay For Life is an event that may involve minors. I warrant that I am not a person recorded on the Australian National Child Offender Register.

Photographic consent

I acknowledge that in the course of Relay For Life, photographs, images or film may be taken of me, either alone or in group shots with others. I agree to the use of my image in these photographs, images or film and for their use on the websites or in Cancer Council publications in the future. I agree to the use of my name in conjunction with any photographs of me. I also agree that the photographs or film may be used by third party media organisations in connection with the reporting of Relay For Life.

Privacy

I understand that Cancer Council collects two types of information through this website:

1. Personal information that I provide; and
2. Standard web server/visitor traffic information such as ISP addresses, browser versions, referring websites, duration of visits and total visitor traffic. This information helps Cancer Council to understand how people use its website and assists Cancer Council to manage its site to better serve its audience.

I consent to the collection of my personal information including my first name and surname, email address, physical address and telephone number, as well as information about my health and lifestyle. I consent to the use of such information (and other related information) for the purpose of providing me with email reminders, telephone call-backs and SMS messages, as well as to evaluate, develop, improve and promote Relay For Life and other Cancer Council events and fundraising offers and opportunities. I consent to the disclosure of this information to third parties for the purpose of providing automated SMS messages to me.

I understand that information may be disclosed to third parties outside Australia including offshore parties, to facilitate these activities and for the purpose of data storage and back-up, and that these third parties may be located in countries that have different privacy laws and standards from those that exist in Australia. I consent to such disclosure of my personal information.
